The right of trial by Jury, the Habeas Corpus, the Liberty of the Press, the Free dom of Speech, the Natural Rights of Persons, and the Rights of Property, must be preserved."-[Extract from the Order of Gen. Hancock, of Nov. 29th, 1867.

The Saunders-Hhan murder case Mobile has been fixed for trial on the 17th inst.

Col. Lamar's name has been restored to the roll of Attorneys in the United States Court. It had received no stain.

The Macon Beacon says eighteen of the negro Ku-Klux who attempted to murder Bridges, a constable, in Noxubee county, have been lodged in jail to await their trial at the coming term of These adventurers when placed in power | The foregoing has appeared in the new the Circuit Court. The are many more by bayonent interference in disregard of Radical paper, and although we are not

Our correspondent, "Mississippian, favors us with a good letter to-day, redo lent of truth and abounding with happy hits. His demonstration that the "Eminent Man" is a success, cannot be ex-

We may not concur entirely with all our respected correspondent "WE SHALL SEE," has written; but his views are designed to light up the pathway of our which Radical misrule, oppression and ev: corruption has driven them.

+40++ Old Lawrence Moving.

We notice that a call has been made for a meeting of citizens of Lawrence opposed to Radical misrule, on the 22d inst. A subscriber incloses the call with the remark that "the people of the coun-

AGRICULTURAL LIEN LAW, -An impression prevails that the late Legislature repealed or modified the Act of February, 1867, entitled "An act to secure advances to planters"-otherwise known as the Agricultural Lien Law. We have carefully examined the list of acts passed, and find that the law of 1867 has not been changed in any particular.

THE LEADER.-This new Radical paper of Messrs. Alcorn & Fisher who are contending for the Public Printing under the appointment of Gov. Alcorn, against the Proprietors of the Pilot-has | Gov. Alcorn, was then engaged in a conmade its appearance with Dr. Wm. M. Compton announced as editor. In principle we discover no material difference bore testimony to their falsity-and solbetween the two journals, and we are led to infer that the only object in establishing the new organ was to secure an equi- thors were libellers, and were convicted table division of the spoils.

If a public indebtedness of one milli and a half dollars has been created dur ing eighteen months of carpet-bag rule on pretence that it has been required to defray the ordinary expenses of the State government, what will be the amount of the debt at the expiration of four years if the tax-payers do not interpose and elect a Legislature composed of sound, capable and honest Mississippians who have the welfare of the State at heart, and are more interested in reducing expenditures than in creating them?

Confiscation Commenced.

auction by the Sheriffs of the several framers of the government, were torn counties. They present an appalling down, and the minions of power at picture of oppressive taxation and a once commenced the execution of the act. ten of thousands of our best and most set aside and a new and a foreign jurisof the long sessions of the Legislature and for offences of which they are guiltand its excessive appropriations. The less as unborn babes. money for the six hundred thousand for the Executive Mansion; for Secret committed, the alien plunderers claiming Militia; for the unheard of extravagance largely responsible. of per diem and stationery items; printing extortions, and what not, must come. Gov. Alcorn is jointly responsible with the The "out-at-elbow" tribe who are pen- rest of the Wreckers. Finding that his sioned on the treasury must be paid, and | testimony in behalf of the people and in since the tax-payers have not been able contradiction of the falsehoods of the to raise the tribute required of them, their carpet-bag wing of his party, was treated The Meridian riots were cleared up by lands are offered for sale to the highest redeemed hereafter at a ruinous sacrifice. from confiscation. Taxes must be duced. Honesty must be the rule office-holders, and not dishonesty as at present. Salaries must be cut down. Economy must be introduced into the administration of the State government. The practice of quartering spies and informers upon the treasury on the assumption that the people are a band of outlaws who need to be watched by a set of hireling curs must be discontinued.

The hope of accomplishing these objects by the election of a Legislature which will represent the bona fide tax-payers of the State, in place of the Ring of Corruptionists and Extortioners who are plunging them into redemptionless ruin and bankruptcy-is the only circumstance that relieves the prospect of the future from perfect darkness

The Democratic Party still lives and inherits from the patriot fathers their uncontional liberty .- B. G. Humph-

ISSUES OF THE CANVASS. The Bayonet Legislation of the Radical Congress Aided and Abetted by the Mongrel State Government.

The people of the State are called up termined effort to throw off the voke of the present Mongrel-Carpet-bag dynasty, not only because it is confiscating their estates with tax laws-multiplying offices and increasing salaries for the benefit of In future paper will be discontinued when the treasury-leeches at the expense of honest labor-and turning the halls of legislation into a market where votes are bought and sold as merchantable commodity-but because it has become a servile, obedient and active agent of the Republican rulers at Washington for the execution of the unconstitutional and despotic Bayonet Law, by virtue of which federal authority has taken the place of local law, and citizens imprisoned on the statement of bribed and perjured informers, without judicial accusation, or any of the forms prescribed by the constitution of the State and champion organ?

liberty and life. The passage of this law was procured of the carpet-bag legislators of Mississippi, and the other Southern States.— connection which would be interesting consideration because they are honestly trying with all manner of vexatious and was not in any manner, shape, form or going legal investigation. Some min

JACKSON, MISS., March 9, 1871.)

HON. SENATOR AMES, Senate Chamber: The Meridian riot seems, from informa ty are manifesting more interest in the Henderson, members, arrived by train from orrent of atrocious calumny like the willing ears of the Beast Butlers, Mor- ments. tons and others of the Radical leaders who control the two Houses of Congress.

When these falsehoods were circulated the head of the Executive Department, troversy on a question of office with the Radical majority in the Legislature. He emply averred that they "found no justification in fact"-declared that their auand branded scoundrels-protested that the reports of Warren & Co. "derogated from the power of his administration to enforce the law"-and proclaimed before high Heaven that "Mississippi presented an unbroken evidence of civil order and obedience." Nay, more. Distrusting the Ring, the "propositions" were made by efficacy of his own word he armed himself with a written statement of Secretary of

It is thus established by the highest Radical authority that there was no occasion for the passage of the law, even if it had the sanction of the Constitution.

Nevertheless the conspirators triumph-Our State exchanges are filled with ed. The bill was passed. The safeadvertisements of lands for sale at public guards of life and liberty, created by the gloomy prospect ahead. Thousands and State laws and State tribunals have been industrious citizens are doomed to witness | diction has been established in the State. the sacrifice of the little property they Arrests for alleged disturbances of the have saved from the desolations of the peace are made not upon warrant nor by war. This remnant of their estates, is officers known to the State law, but by the "Wreck" which the Mongret cormo- federal soldiers, and crowds of peaceable rants have been feasting upon since they and unoffending citizens are dragged away Outrage Committee .- Vicksburg Herald. were put in power by Ames' bayonets. from their homes and families to be tried High taxes is a necessary consequence upon charges of which they are ignorant tected from assault by Democrats, and an

For the passage of the infamous act dollar appropriation in a single lump- under which these outrages have been Service; for the Organization of the to be the Legislature of the State, were

For the atrocious manner of its execution with contempt by the authorities at Smith, Ford and Whitaker. Washington, he has turned State's evi- The testimony of Jacobson and Adam Remedial legislation will be required.

The people must have remittances, and The people must have remittances and The people must have remittances and The people must have remitted the people must ha these people manufactured and sent to comfort to the instigators of the "inves-Washington by Warren and others who tigation." were the authorized mouth-pieces of the Radical party in control of the Legislative department. The proof of the agency of terrible railroad disaster, the particulars the head of the Executive department in of which will be found in another colthe working of this infernal machinery umn. It is a repetition of the Buckner's after it was invented, is found in the Trestle slaughter, which occurred on the Fund collected from the pockets of the way and many persons hurried unexpectquerable hatred of tyrants and undying love people and placed at his disposal by the edly to their graves. This slaughter was of our people, Gov. Alcorn said fur released on their own recognisance in the

He has dismissed from the editorship of his personal organ, THE LEADER, Col. Manlove, because he denounced the said osecution as "an outrage" which he would not fail to denounce,

His said organ has committed itself un equivocally to the support of the Grant Administration which is the author and responsible agent of these crimes against the liberties of the people, and especially does it justify the law itself and the tyranny of its execution.

It is for the people to decide at the ming election whether they are willing to continue in power these conspirators against their lives and liberties. Whether they will elect a Legislature whose chief business will be to invoke the sword of federal vengeance on their heads and load them with fetters; or a have been kidrapped by federal troops Legislature which will alleviate their and transported to distant countries and burdens and turn away the wrath of their

the Dent programme, in which it was th of the United States for the protection of tain propositions made by the Dent party to General Ames in May, 1869, offering him in part through the direct instrumentality of the carpet bag legislators of Missis.

There is a little unpublished history in this sentatives of their own choice, and they material to a pending canvass we propose neans of continuing them in office. Dur- unequivocally. The Clarion is not ng the late session of the Legislature, apprized that any one authorized to speak they deliberately matured a conspiracy for what the Leader terms the "Dent for this purpose and poured into the ears party" approached Ames with a propo of the rulers at Washington the most sition to elect him to the U. S. Senate frightful reports which their diabolical on any condition. If there were any of the bad faith, violence and lawlessness such a bargain, we, are totally ignorant to have submitted it; and let Ames doers, but that overcome, as I confid himself proclaim it from the house-top.

> add that when Dr. Compton, the editor sents an unbroken evidence of civil of of the Leader, by his own consent was being mentioned as a Democratic candi-"rascally adventurers" as are new hold-

This proposition could not have been suggested by Dr. Compton in the interest of the "Dent party," because he was understood to favor a nomination for Governor by the Democratic party and to be an aspirant for the place himself, and was therefore opposed to the "Dent novement" and consequently could not peak for it. Nor could his projected sequence of Alcorn's subsequent nomnation as the Radical candidate because it was well understood at the time that Alcorn would occupy that position.

This comprises all we know about the propositions" alluded to. The inference, however, is that inasmuch as their author (Dr. Compton) subsequently joined the Radical party and was taken into the joined, and the bargain closed. Certain State Lynch verifying his representatit it is that Ames did import vagabonds from Memphis, New Orleans and other cities to corrupt the ballot-box and 'carry' the election; and that the Legislature through his villainous manipulations, did elect him to the place designated. It is also known that Dr. Compton himself was among the first who were provibeen made with the satrap who held the result of the election in the hollow of his hand; and subsequent at Meridian were provoked by arson and

We have confirmation of this press report from the most authoritative source

at Washington. We are advised by one the Radical desperados for the manufacture of partisan capital at the expense of Mississippi, has completely failed. Our distinguished correspondent writes, "So far Mississippi is not scathed. dence and is now leagued with the origi- was satisfactory." As our readers are We have shown that the law in ques- who will have no motive to asperse the tien was passed in consequence of the name of the State, are yet to be examined, false and scandalous reports concerning and their testimony will furnish but little Another Railroad Slaughter. We have again to chronicle another Central road near Oxford, a little over a Mongrel Legislature, to employ counsel in Tennessee. Where and when will be ther: to assist in the prosecution of the citizens the next?

who have been arrested in virtue of the The State Administration and the conclusively that compared with the govadical War Upon our

It has been repeatedly stated without contradiction that Gov. Alcorn is particeps . . criminis in the vindictive persecution of abams, I pledge my honor as a man before the citizens of the State now held in durance whole country that I cannot at this modeclared he could never sanction and vile by federal soldiers and on trial before a jury packed for conviction in the federal court at Oxford.

shameful and outrageous proceedings. their infamous vocation. It is stated that he is hounding on the persecutors and aiding and abetting them with money contributed by the tax-payers to the support of the State government in the performance of its legitimate functions, and placed at his disposal by the Mongrels in the Legislature under the name of Secret Service money.

As late as the 17th of March Gov. Alcorn sent the following despatch to Will the Clarion tell its readers all about Washington designed to contradict the falsehoods of certain carpet-bag leaders in the State that her people were in a condition of lawlessless and that the civil authorities were not competent to enforce the laws and preserve the peace. One of the despatches to which the following was an answer was forwarded over the official signature of Warren who had foisted himself into the Legislature as a

> Jackson, Miss., March 17, 1871. HON. A. AMES, UNITED STATES SENATE, AND GEORGE S. HARRIS, J. L. MORPHIS, AND L. W. PERCE, HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,

I am informed that dispatches have been ingenuity was capable of manufacturing supporters of that ticket who proposed law. I desire to correct that misrepresentation sound in the main, and are entitled to of the people whose patternee they were of the fact. Certainly THE CLARION ly suppressed. The parties are now under plundering legislation. The following fashion, concerned in it. Let the editor points of the Alabama border in the night people out of the dreary wilderness into dispatch is an evidence of this conspiration of the Leader name the persons alleged by parties in disguise. My only difficulty hope it will be, this government is powerfu While on the subject we will further crimes. Save in these cases Mississippi pre-

> to overthrow the city and county govern- date for Governor, he himself is known to -several weeks subsequent to the transons killed. Bramlette, white man killed have suggested a bargain of the sort with mission of the foregoing despatch—Gov. by accidental shot. Serators Gleed and Ames, but on whose authority besides his Alcorn published an elaboratly prepared own, if anybody's, we are not informed. letter to the N. Y. Tribune in which h The idea on which he was understood by effectually demonstrated by facts and various persons to found the proposed figures the law-abiding conduct of the earnestly urge on Congress the necessity of arrangement was that it would be better people of the State and testified to their prompt and thorough measures to suppress outrage and violence in all parts of the to elect Ames to the Senate than for him rapid approach to a condition of "absolute to employ his extraordinary powers to repose" as a peaceable and law-abiding hand over the entire State government to community under civil rule. He The bayonet-law was the fruit of the the control of precisely such a horde of denounced the statements which for partizan effect had been made to the conforegoing which was poured into the ing their carnival in its various depart- trary as "libels" and their authors as calumniators and "swindlers." From this letter of Gov. Alcorn we will present some extracts which will refresh the public mind. After analyizing the starule and under the existing civil Administration, he said:

The foregoing analysis shows an extraorscheme have been abandoned by him in purture, the aggravation went on under the work for a short period after the restorat of civil government. But the transition hows a most gratifying falling off in deeds official facts, to have been descending by rapid strides in the development of anarchy cited in proof of the conclusion that in the

the authors of these "libels"

"With this proof thus made, let me now ded for. It was charged repeatedly in ent, I think I can show you that the public onvince you how unworthy his statements events have confirmed our opinion of the in his attempts to corrupt this Legislature, to be an arrant sharper and knave. Though certainly not the journal in which they were not verified before the public by the ner set down as a self-impeachment of who positively knows, that the scheme of which it is entitled; but if any concurrent dence when dragging in even a false light faction-rightly or wrongly I do not pre Mongrel State Administration has been and the other, (Col. Adam) was a Re-Mongrel State Administration has been thrown into the scale against our unarmed, unoffending, peaceable, impoverished and ill-used people, in the very hour of their calamity, and in favor of their powerful and vindictive persecutors.

PROOF.

and the other, (Col. Adam) was a Republican—who, like Carl Shurz, was "too honest to buy the favor of the President at the expense of his convictions" and flung in his face the commission which he held before he would submit to dictation as to the course he should pursue in the election of 1869. Clouds of witnesses the State, and to the administration, and who will have no motive to asperse the while I am determined to leave no agency the State, and to the administration, and while I am determined to leave no agency of detection at my service unemployed in bringing the perpetrators of it to justice, I protest earnestly against any attempt to deceive the Government by making that crime appear to be one committed upon an officer of the Federal Revenue, rather than as it really was, upon an officer of the State Board of Education. As a Federal agent, Mr. Huggins has, I venture to affirm, never encountered opposition or hostility from any people of his district. I will go further: never since the war have I heard of the commission of popular violence in this State on any officer whatever of the National Revenue.

"I must now insist that the recital shows December next.

ernment of the bayonet the government of law in Mississippl is up to this hour pregoutrage in this State for the past six months." This is the testimony which Gov. Alcorn gave on his "honor as a man. We have been prone to regard these three months ago. Nor could be now rumors as mere scandulous inventions; plead want of information in reference to Butter Brigade. They represent salaries so they may know who their assailant is. One White but their continued repetition without the matters whereof he spoke. By means in the aggregate of from $20,000 to $30. It is well understood that two-thirds of had a difficulty of contradiction and the accumulating testiof the Secret Service money, he had his ooo, besides perquisites, pickings and the "rascally adventurers" who with the Whistler drew his mony of their correctness, leave no room well-paid spies and detectives at work in stealings. With the exception of Judge scalawags that have conspired with them for further doubt of his complicity in the various parts of the State busily plying Peyton, whose position the bench we in the stealing business, comprise the white U. S. soldier. This citizen ap tion, is their recompense.

Col. T. B. MANLOVE.-It is no secret that the card of this gentleman them from taxation. denouncing as an "outrage" the summary arrest and savage treatment of citizens of Forty Thieves from whose depredations command of United States officials and the right of the people to select representative of Leake county and who the State in the judicial proceedings at the impoverished people are now suffer- with the approval of the 'Eminent man Pierce, the U. S. Marshall will probably have the presumption to Oxford in violation of her laws and deling. Their sole object will be to renew "who sways the destiny of Mississippi." paper established here by Messrs.

incumbents in the office of State Printer.

Gov. Alcorn as a Witness. against any action of the federal govern- them by the tens, hundreds and thou of civil obedience and order." The Canvass.

the coming contest. The eyes of the Mississippi are upon her.

It is estimated by the Messrs. Green, bankers of this city, that the Railroad stock transferred by the Legislature as a subsidy to the N. O., J. & G. N. R. R. in consideration of its performance of its obligation to extend the road to Aberdeen, is worth in actual cash $245,000. Gen. West, who fathers the scheme, has estimated it to be worth more. It is a little singular that potwithstanding this worthy of any notice as reflections upon a large bonus which is nothing less than legalized robbery-for it takes what belongs to the whole people from them and transfers it to a favored corporation without any consideration whatever-the people of Attala are required by the corpor- become a candidate for the Legislature, ation to submit to a heavy tax and in- Chickasaw could not well select a more formed by its agents that in default of faithful Representative. Mr. Murray shouldering the burden they will not get has considerable legislative experience,

The State has now two "official journals," neither of them appearing to know of the existence of the other. It is not even mentioned as an item of news by either that the other claims to be the "official journal." But the Pilot still informs the world that it is the "Official Journal of Mississippi," while the Leader announces itself to be the "Official Journal of the State." They have turned their backs to each other, and stand pouting like school Misses contending for a gainst prize. To others this looks anything but Republican administration at Washing- ly. thus the whole weight of the present cobson are office-holders under Grant, a certain part of his school jurisdiction to selve as others see them

If the official paper, or any other party, is authorized to contradict the report that Gov. Alcorn has submitted without protest to the subversion of State authority and the arrest of citizens by U. S. troops without warrant and their detention and trial before a federal court at Oxfordand that he has actually connived at these malicious and despotic proceedings "in derogation of the power" of his own administration-let such authorized representative speak out now, or forever hereafter hold his peace!

THE OXFORD POLITICAL PRISONERS As we go to press we learn that ten of the political prisoners who have been undergoing a trial for the benefit of the Radi-And in the course of the same letter cal party, and whom witnesses pretended Gov. Alcorn has used the Secret Service year ago. A defective bridge giving in which he bore truthful testimony to identify, were released on bail in the und collected from the pockets of the way and many persons hurried unexpectithe good faith and peaceful inclination sum of $5,000. The remainder were sum of $500, all to appear for trial in Wreckers to the Rescue. Both the Radical organs here have this

A meeting of this Committee was held in the Senate Chamber on the 5th inst. Present Lieut.-Gov. R. C. Powers, Hon. J. Tar-Col. Musgrove, and Senator Revels. The call for a State Delegate Convention to be ment recall but a single instance of Ku-Kluz held on the 30th August, prox. issued.

It will be observed that every one of this specked committee is an office-holder, It will be remembered that these docu- aloof from partizan maneuvering, each State, bear no good feeling towards the ments were published when Gov. Alcorn is a carpet-bag adventurer—one of the people who are inclined to protest against was pursued by the carpet-bag spoilsmen "mournful facts" so vividly described by their plundering operations, but they are with a view to his destruction, and when Mr. Greeley on his return from his not all so out-spoken. They, together Lamar entered he relied for support upon the Conserva- Southern tour. Towering among the with their accomplices, in "gathering up sent the tive phalanx in the Legislature. With rest, we discover the "Great Organizer," the wreck," are a miserable set of felthe assistance of these true-hearted Mis- ready for one of his "usual able efforts," lows. sissippians who trusted to his remaining in his peculiar line. These office-holders The Oxford Political Persecutions steadfast in the exercise of his official po- having seriously resolved that it is good sition for the vindication of the people of to hold the places they occupy as take the State from the assaults of their ma- eaters, have summoned the rest of the lignant accusers, his triumph was assur- Wreckers to the rescue, and are appeal- the following notice of the arrival of the ed. His complicity with the Radical ing to the colored people on whose labor United States Marshal with troops at that under his coat as if to draw his rulers at Washington, in their persecu- in common with the community general- place. From which it appears that we Lamar requested Judge Hill t naturally look to the same agency as a in this instance to respond plainly and be a candidate at the ensuing election: fiance of her government—has resulted their hold on the public purse which they have bled so freely for the past eighteen months, during which time they have Marshal, Shaughnessy and one or more deputies, arrived here last evening, by Vicksburg train from Jackson, accompanied in his disconnection with the new Radical have bled so freely for the past eighteen Alcorn & Fisher, the persons appointed bankrupted the tax-payers and forced by the Governor to succeed the present one-tenth of their lands on the market reported, left on the up Mobile train last night. We find an impression prevalent under the sheriff's hammer. But they night. organs of the Governor and understood from that in which they entered upon the to be his mouth-piece, the disagreement contest for the places they now hold .- tary force in this quarter of the State. in reference to the position of Col. Man- Thanks to the defeat of the disfranchislove who had been engaged as chief edi- ing clause of the Black-and-Tan Constitor of the paper, may be taken as an tution of '68, the elective franchise i endorsement by the "Eminent Man" of now enjoyed by fifteen thousand taxthe Oxford tyranny and a disapproval of paving citizens who were not permitted Col. Manlove's denunciation. This is a to vote in the elections which were held significant fact showing that the Govern- under the reconstruction acts. The bonaor, in order to restore himself to the favor fide white citizens of the State having of Grant, Butler, Ames & Co., has not experienced the curse of Mongrel rule. ridian, the Washington Patriot says: only gone back on his despatch of March are thoroughly aroused to the necessity 17th and his Tribune letter of April 5th; of throwing it off. Notwithstanding known as the "Meridian riot" was provoked but of the State Government of which he thousands of capable and good men of by the Radical negroes, and commenced by lars per mile to railroads bereafter both the former political parties are not permitted to hold office, the range of eli-A Washington despatch says that Gov. gibility is wide enough to select candi-Alcorn is to be summoned to Washington dates who have the confidence of the to testify before the Outrage Committee. people. There is no military satrap to concurred in the statements heretofore pub He will thus have an opportunity to re- import Plug-Uglies and Jail-birds from peat his denunciation of the "libels" the purlieus of neighboring cities to ravwhich he desounced as having been ish the ballot-box and manufacture and propagated by Ames, Huggins and the count out votes for Radical candidates .-correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune. The white people, outside of the Bread whom he classed as a "swindler," and and Butter Brigade, are united to a others in his letter of April 5th. And man against the Wreckers, and the also to reaffirm his vehement protest colored people have fallen away from ment "derogating from the power of my ands; and disgusted with their false pro-(his) Administration to enforce the law." mises, and sick of the hard times they tistics of violence under Ames' military And also to renew the testimony contained have brought upon the country, will in his despatch of March 17th, to Ames either co-operate against them in crowds, & Co., that save in exceptional cases or refuse longer to be made subservient

"Misissippi presents an unbroken evidence instruments in their hands. It is estimated that each witness in the Outrage Investigation costs the Govern-We publish elsewhere the proceedings ment $250. A million of dollars, or one of a mass meeting of citizens of DeSoto tenth as much as the entire cost of the county, held at Hernando, on the 3d Government under the original thirteen the North Pole, left New York on inst. The resolutions are patriotic and States-will not cover the entire expenses Thursday the 29th of June. She will to the point. The meeting was large and of this investigation which was instituted stop en route at St. Johns, Newfoundland, of violence. While military power in Mississippi is seen in the above statement of present and participated in its delibera- capital for Northern Radical consump- the place of salt junk in the Arctic tions. Hon. J. W. C. Watson, Col. J. W. tion, and furnishing a pretext for har- regions. Captain Hall will then push Clapp, and others addressed the assem- rassing and persecuting the white popu- forward to his winter quarters in the ice bled multitude. DeSoto has girded her lation of the Southern States every one pack which fringes the unexplored open loins to enter the contest in which Radi- of which (with the exception of poor sea around the Pole, and with the return regard with which I am your friend calism must be vanquished or Mississip- down-trodden South Carolina,) will re- of the sun in May next he will endeavor, pi ruined. We are rejoiced to see that compense the party of this mean and by ship or by sledges, to reach the Pole the citizens of the Empire county of the cowardly persecution by voting against itself. State appreciate the vital importance of its candidate for the Presidency in 1872.

Doing the Fair Thing. -The carpetbag editors of Holly Springs North Mississippian having in an unguarded moment written that Mr. John Calhoon, editor of the Reporter, "is prepared to "brand as false anything that tends to "promote good feelings between the two 'parties or the two sections of the coun-'try-North and South-regardless of 'truth, honor or anything else," have made amends on the demand of Mr. Calhoon, retracting the offensive clause and admitting that he had given no occasion for their language.

CHICKASAW COUNTY. - We are pleased to see a call upon Hon. B. Murray, to and while a member of the House of Representatives was always at his post, and always discharging his duty with that zeal, industry, and integrity which char-be clearly established on trial, if a trial acterize him in all that he undertakes. He is the cordial enemy of Radicalism.

Do you oppose the arbitrary arrest of citizens without warrant by U. S. troops in defiance of State laws and their trial by a suborned jury not of the vicinage, zens in the county and sent them to Oxford. packed to convict? If so, register and either as principals or witnesses, it is supposed, in the Ku-Klux cases that have ocvote for men committed against these curred in this vicinity. One man, we unwrongs which are perpetrated by the Republican State administration.

It is thought strange that two-thirds of the jury organized to convict the citizens arrested by federal troops and detained at Oxford, are composed of Loyal Leaguers. Never since the reign of judicial tyranny in the days of Jeffries were such outrages practiced in the name of justice. The Radical party has been fruitful in its invention of tortures for the people of the South since they, in good faith, years ago, accepted the terms of surrender.

The State witnesses were introduced on Friday. John Wolf (col.) a noted scoundred, was first brought upon the 'stand. He swort to the identity of three men, Jasper Webb. Malone, and Whitfield Pope, He remarked to Gen. Gholson, Col. Reynolds and Houston on the street the evening before, that he did not know a single man that killed Alex. Page, knew nothing about it what-disclaimed any knowledge of Col. Reynolds and Capt. Houston, saying he never saw them before in his life, and said Gen. Gholson was mistaken, as he did not tell him any such thing. From this on, his testimony was one bundle of inconsistencies and lies.

"The Thieving Carpet-Baggers are nournful pack."—Greeley. Wherever the carpet-bagger has placed his foot in the South, there has he knelt if necessary and said, "Let us prey."—Forest Register.

The Brandon Republican and the Mississippi Central have both illustrated in the highest style of art Greeley's description of the preying carpet-bagger.

The 14th Amendment to the Constitution of the United States prevents no Man from Voting.

"Cut-Throats and Barbarians." We learn that a United States officer, attending Court at this place, in writing to his friends North a few days since, stated that too much could not be said against our people here, that they were "cut-throats and barbarians." That fellow's heart is blacker than the skin of the blackest negro ever thief. One honest thought would explode his pumpkin head.—Oxford Falcon. Will not our cotemporary of the Falcon name the official who has thus deand a prominent leader in the Bread and scribed the white population of the State, before the respectfully submit ought to keep him element of the Radical party of the Lamar to have to be Repeated in this Judicial District.

The Meridian Mercury of the 8th has ly, they have levied heavy contributions, are to have in this Judicial District a though they pretend to have exempted repetition of the outrages, persecutions and perjury which have been going on The gathering will be a council of the during the last month at Oxford by U. S. MARSHALS AND MILITARY,-U. S. Col. Lamar struck by a squad of about 20 soldiers. They stopped at the European House, and, it is that they have not gone far away, and will

The Meridian Riot.

False reports of the testimony elicited before the Outrage Committee are constantly published for effect in the Northrn newspapers from which they are transferred to the Southern press. Referring to the misrepresentation in the case of Col. Whitaker and others of Me-

"He testified explicitily that what i upon frauds and excite the black population

We learn that it is the purpose of the Attorney General to appoint special assistant district Attorneys in several of the Southern States, charged with the energetic and prompt enforcement of the Ku-Klux bill. Washington Chronicle. The public are thus advised that the Radical war against the South, is to be continued with vigor. The appointment of "special assistant District Attorneys" is an unusual proceeding; and is designed lister: to buy up Administration partizans with money collected from its victims.

Expedition to the North Pole. The Polaris, Captain Hall, bound for

THE RADICAL BAYONET LAW

HOW IT WORKS.

In connection with our leading article on this subject, we ask the attention of the reader to the following extracts show- road, through the borders of our ing how it works. Remember that to vote for a so-called Republican candidate is to vote for the authors and abettors of

From the Aberdeen Examiner.

Our Kidnapped Citizens. Among those kidnapped in defiance of w, from their homes on the East side of the river last Saturday, was a poor and inoffensive cripple, by the name of McNeese, who was forced to leave a house full of little Another, Judge, Forde, an old man of sixty or seventy, was carried off to Oxford on account of his having a wound in the palm ecurred in the presence of several person -which it is alleged was received while he was raiding as "Ku Klux. Another of these been shot through the foot while on a Ku Klux expedition.

A Citizen torn from the Bed of

A squad of about twenty United States immediately proceeded to attend to their duties, and have arrested several of our citi-

Witnesses Convicted of Perjury. From the Examiner.

Fanny Page, wife of Alex. Page, was next introduced. Swore to six men—Jasper Webb, Malone, Whitfield Pope, Andrew Crosby, and two others. When questioned as to the identity of Crosby, she said she knew he was there on the night of the killing, as he removed his visor and saw his face. When asked if she knew him, she said she certainly did. When asked to point him out, she said she did not see him among the prisoners. McNesse was then told to get up and she was requested to state if that was Mr. Crosby, she said it was. Being asked if she was certain, she said she was, and that she had known him for sometime. Fanny Page, wife of Alex. Page, was next elism? If so, register.

t was also stated that th

Ex-President Davis Declines

The following letter addressed to h Walthall is published in the Mobile

MY DEAR SIE-With sincere thanks

WHEREAS, We the citiz Board of Supervisors of 4

Resolved, That we every citizen of the county to]6

J. A. WARRES

E. P. HARME

Mann to Fleet Mercer. enterprise would be commend will operate as a quietus to the er Goodman Star.

Upon motion the Hernando Press, 12 Senatobia Times and the Clarion wer requested to publish the proceedings the DeSoto county mass meeting, which we had already done before the official copy reached us.

During a quarrel between two negros on the place of W. D. Terry, at Terry Depot, a few days since, one of them ses badly, if not fatally wounded. One them used a distol, while the other, care lier like, endeavored to use the sword." Crystal Springs Hearld.

Suicide of W. H. Llowitys. LETTLE ROCK, July 7 .- W. B. L. welyn, travelling agent for Simpson & Co New York, committed suicide at Louiside At Louiside Prairie county, on Thursday taking an over dose of morphine. tionata letter to his wife P Do you wish to aid in over-throwing He had no money on his person, and will buried by the citisons,